

Network of Organizations for Minors:

Objectives:

The objective of the Network of Organizations for Minors is:

- 1) To provide a guidance system, in such a way, that children and youths get more than enough chances to develop to worthy citizens in our society .
- 2) To create a network, of which clients, counselors and the society can noticeably profit. Via structural deliberations, the aid request will be tuned to the client (in the network), after which the guidance or treatment will be determined and adopted by the relevant organizations.

Sub-objectives:

- & To create possibilities to exchange information, know-how and experience through: workshops, theme-meetings, newsletters and internet.
- & To contribute to new initiatives by: initiating courses in new guidance methods and techniques, promote and stimulate research; support the local and federal youth policy for more cooperation.
- & To protect the interest of children and youths by: pointing out bottlenecks and providing/suggesting solutions.
- & To provide information, concerning the problem of children and youths by: creating media attention and informing and educating citizens.

Activities and Projects:

- ☺ Research of the scope of the youth problem in St. Maarten.
- ☺ Compilation of a social map / directory of St. Maarten, with links to experts in other Windward and Leeward islands.
- ☺ Organization of the registration of the aid request and the uniformity in function of better tuning of the social assistance to the aid request.
